Whereas, on April 25, 2014, the Ithaca College Student Government Association's Task Force on Diversity and Inclusion held a town hall-style meeting to discuss the issue of microaggressions, as they relate to the problems currently existing at Ithaca College; and

Whereas, during this meeting, students were given the opportunity to present examples of microaggressions both witnessed and committed; and

Whereas, some of the stories shared came from the School of Music; and

Whereas, significant progress regarding the issue of microaggressions has been made in the School of Health Science and Human Performance that can easily be replicated in other schools; it is therefore

Resolved, that the Ithaca College Student Government Association formally recommends that the administrators, faculty, and staff, in conjunction with Interim Provost Linda Petrosino and Dean of the School of Music, Karl Paulnack, address and combat the growing concerns and issues brought forth by students regarding microaggressions occurring on campus and Ithaca College-associated events off-campus, while also remaining completely transparent with all students of Ithaca College as to what their plan of action will be moving forward.
