Whereas, Ithaca College strives to become the standard of excellence for residential comprehensive colleges

Whereas, Ithaca College strives to foster an environment that values diversity as an integral part of the educational experience and of the community

Whereas, Ithaca College is currently lacking a gender-neutral housing option; despite listing on multiple web resources as having a gender-neutral housing program in place

Whereas, Ithaca College implemented a gender-neutral housing program for the 2008–2009 academic year, the program was then discontinued for the 2010–2011 academic year

Whereas, There is currently no option in the housing selection process for students to choose gender-neutral housing

It is resolved that Ithaca College Student Government Association formally recommends to the Ithaca College Office of Residential Life that the office implements a new gender-neutral housing option during the housing selection process beginning in the housing selection process of 2015–2016.
